Letter of Engagement

[name]

by email only: to [email]

Thank you for contacting me. I am pleased to act for you in this matter.

Enclosed in this letter is the following:

- A. Letter of Engagement, including information on Legal Aid, and;
- B. Standard Terms and information that lawyers are required to provide to clients in accordance with the Lawyers and Conveyancers Act (Lawyers: Conduct and Client Care) Rules 2008.

These standard Terms of Engagement apply in respect of all work carried out by us for you, except to the extent that we otherwise agree with you in writing.

1. SERVICES TO BE PROVIDED

The legal services I expect to be providing you, in summary, are:

- a. Fill out here

2. FINANCIAL (LEGAL AID)

You are in the process of applying for or have been granted a grant of legal aid. Once you have made your application and your grant has been confirmed, we will submit invoices from time to time to the Ministry of Justice. From time to time, we may also seek an amendment to the grant of legal aid if we require more time or disbursements to properly advance your case. We will send you copies of these documents.

The Ministry of Justice will write to you about any repayment obligations that you have in relation to the grant of legal aid, and about your rights of review in relation to decisions made by the Ministry about that grant. You should read these letters carefully and keep them for later reference.

One of the things you must do is let the Ministry of Justice know if there are any changes in your financial circumstances. There will be a contact person noted on the letters that they send you.

3. RESPONSIBILITY FOR SERVICES

Chris LaHatte (Barrister) is a Lead Legal Aid Provider for Criminal, Civil and Family Law matters.

Jessica Cooper (Employed Barrister) is a Supervised Legal Aid Provider for Criminal, Civil and Family Law Matters.

4. LIMITATIONS ON OUR OBLIGATIONS OR LIABILITY

When we take instructions from you, we expect that you will disclose all the facts that are material to the instruction. You may believe that some of the facts do not help your situation, none the less you must provide us with all the information, as we cannot properly advise you unless we have full disclosure. Our engagement is therefore dependent on your full disclosure of all material information. We are not liable for the effect of your failure to disclose on any result we achieve.

If the information in this letter and the accompanying material is acceptable, please sign the attached copy of this letter where indicated and return it to us. If you orally

STANDARD TERMS OF ENGAGEMENT

These Standard Terms of Engagement (“Terms”) apply in respect of all work carried out by me for you, except to the extent that I otherwise agree with you in writing.

1 General

1.1 These Standard Terms of Engagement (Terms) apply to any current engagement and also to any future engagement, whether or not we send you another copy of them. We are entitled to change these Terms from time to time, in which case we will send you amended Terms. Our relationship with you is governed by New Zealand law and New Zealand courts have exclusive jurisdiction.

2 Services

2.1 The services we are to provide for you (the Services) are outlined in our letter of engagement along with any further instructions that you provide to us in writing (or that we record in writing).

2.2 In order to provide you with efficient advice and services and to provide the most cost-effective service, it may be that part or all of your instructions will be delegated to other professionals in our firm.

3 Communications

3.1 We will obtain from you contact details, including email address, postal address and telephone numbers. We may provide documents and other communications to you by email (or other electronic means). You will advise us if any of your contact details change.

3.2 We will report to you periodically on the progress of any engagement and will inform you of any material and unexpected delays, significant changes or complications in the work being undertaken. You may request a progress report at any time.

3.3 You agree that we may provide you from time to time with other information that may be relevant to you, such as newsletters and information bulletins. At any time you may request that this not be sent to you.

4 Financial

4.1 Fees: Fees will be charged to legal aid and in accordance with your grant. Legal aid may seek to recover some payments from you depending on your financial circumstances.

4.2 Disbursements and Third Party Expenses: In providing the Services we may incur disbursements and payments to third parties on your behalf. You authorise us to incur these disbursements (which may include such items such as search fees, court filing fees, registration fees and travel and courier charges) which are reasonably necessary to provide the Services. You also authorise us to make payments to third parties on your behalf which are reasonably required to undertake the Services (which may include items such as experts’ costs or counsel’s fees). These will be included in our invoice to you, shown as “disbursements” when the - expenses are incurred (or in advance when we know we will be incurring them on your behalf).

- 4.3 GST: Our services will usually attract Goods and Services Tax (GST). If this is the case, GST is payable by you on our fees and charges.
- 5 Confidentiality and Personal Information
- 5.1 Confidence: We will hold in confidence all information concerning you or your affairs that we acquire during the course of acting for you. We will not disclose any of this information to any other person except:
- a to the extent necessary or desirable to enable us to carry out your instructions; or
  - b as expressly or impliedly agreed by you; or
  - c as necessary to protect our interests in respect of any complaint or dispute; or
  - d to the extent required or permitted by law.
- 5.2 Confidential information concerning you will as far as practicable be made available only to those within our firm who are providing legal services for you.
- 5.3 Personal information and Privacy: In our dealings with you we will collect and hold personal information about you. We will use that information to carry out the Services and to make contact with you about issues we believe may be of interest to you. Provision of personal information is voluntary but if you do not provide full information this may impact on our ability to provide the Services.
- 5.4 Subject to clause 5.1, you authorise us to disclose, in the normal course of performing the Services, such personal information to third parties for the purpose of providing the Services and any other purposes set out in these Terms.
- 5.5 We may disclose your name and address to third parties such as credit agencies to perform a credit reference or to undertake credit management or collection processes if it is reasonable to do so.
- 5.6 The information we collect and hold about you will be kept at our offices and/or at secure file storage sites (including electronic file storage sites) elsewhere. If you are an individual, you have the right to access and correct this information. If you require access, please contact us.
- 6 Documents, Records and Information
- 6.1 We will keep a record of all important documents which we receive or create on your behalf on the following basis:
- a We may keep a record electronically and destroy originals (except where the existence of an original is legally important such as in the case of wills and deeds).
  - b At any time, we may dispose of documents which are duplicates, or which are trivial (such as emails which do not contain substantive information), or documents which belong to us.
  - c We are not obliged to retain documents or copies where you have requested that we provide them to you or to another person and we have done so, although we are entitled to retain copies for our own records if we wish to do so.
- 6.2 We will provide to you on request copies or originals (at our option) of all documents to which you are entitled under the Privacy Act 1993 or any other law. We may charge you our reasonable costs for doing this.

6.3	Where we hold documents that belong to a third party you will need to provide us with that party's written authority to uplift or obtain a copy of that document.	8	Duty of Care
6.4	Unless you instruct us in writing otherwise, you authorise us and consent to us (without further reference to you) to destroy (or delete in the case of electronic records) all files and documents in respect of the Services 3 years after our engagement ends (other than any documents that we hold in safe custody for you or are otherwise obliged by law to retain for longer). We may retain documents for longer at our option.	8.1	Our duty of care is to you and not to any other person. We owe no liability to any other person, including for example any directors, shareholders, associated companies, employees or family members unless we expressly agree in writing. We do not accept any responsibility or liability whatsoever to any third parties who may be affected by our performance of the Services or who may rely on any advice we give, except as expressly agreed by us in writing.
6.5	We may, at our option, return documents (either in hard or electronic form) to you rather than retain them. If we choose to do this, we will do so at our expense.	8.2	Our advice is not to be referred to in connection with any prospectus, financial statement, or public document without our written consent.
6.6	We own copyright in all documents or work we create in the course of performing the Services but grant you a non-exclusive licence to use and copy the documents as you see fit for your own personal or commercial use. However, you may not permit any third party to copy, adapt or use the documents without our written permission.	8.3	Our advice is opinion only, based on the facts known to us and on our professional judgement, and is subject to any changes in the law after the date on which the advice is given. We are not liable for errors in, or omissions from, any information provided by third parties.
7	Conflicts of Interest	8.4	Our advice relates only to each particular matter in respect of which you engage us. Once that matter is at an end, we will not owe you any duty or liability in respect of any related or other matters unless you specifically engage us in respect of those related or other matters.
7.1	We are obliged to protect and promote your interests to the exclusion of the interests of third parties and ourselves as set out in the Lawyers and Conveyancers Act (Lawyers: Conduct and Client Care) Rules 2008 (Rules). This may result in a situation arising where we have a conflict of interest.	8.5	Unless otherwise agreed, we may communicate with you and with others by electronic means. We cannot guarantee that these communications will not be lost or affected for some reason beyond our reasonable control, and we will not be liable for any damage or loss caused thereby.
7.2	We have procedures in place to identify and respond to conflicts of interest or potential conflicts of interest. If a conflict of interest arises we will advise you of this and follow the requirements and procedures set out in the Rules. This may mean we cannot act for you further in a particular matter and we may terminate our engagement.	9	Professional Indemnity Insurance
		9.1.	I hold professional indemnity insurance.

10 Termination and Reassignment

- 10.1 You may terminate or request to reassign your legal aid grant at any time.
- 10.2 We may terminate our retainer in any of the circumstances set out in the Rules including the existence of a conflict of interest, non-payment of fees, and failure to provide instructions. We may also terminate the retainer where your instructions are unreasonable and contrary to your best interests.
- 10.3 If you request to terminate or reassign your legal aid grant, we will inform legal aid as soon as practicable.
